

Crystal Coast Chief's

Newsletter

VOLUME 1, ISSUE 5

DECEMBER 2007

The Crystal Coast Chief's mess conducted a meeting on 7 December 2007, Pearl Harbor Day at the Smokehouse Restaurant in Holly Ridge, NC.

0900 Meeting opened with Pledge of Allegiance and a moment of silence for our fallen brothers and sisters.

Old Business:

Meeting minutes from previous meeting were read. No changes came about.

Treasury report: $2400.00

Old business topics discussed were: Change of Command, CCTI, CPOA shirt order, and the toy banner.

Change of Command is scheduled for 20 December at the Crystal Coast Convention Center at 1100. There will be a rehearsal on the same day at 0800.

CCTI is scheduled for 18 April. Ed Spainhower to chair.

Changes are coming about and Major Phillips will lead the discussion on how this will be implemented.

Capt Lee's print was signed by attendees and the mess was informed that his statue was ready for presentation.

New Business:

Special needs families to receive help for the holidays were voted on. One family in New Bern was given $300, one family in Morehead was given $150.00 and a family in Wilmington was given $150.

CPOA Website was approved for funding and was issued $118.00

BMC Coker memorial fund received a $50 donation

Banners funded: One food drive banner and one toy drive banner was approved for a total of $200.

There was a discussion on various fund raising ideas. A vote was passed to purchase a gaming system or flat screen TV to raffle off. Approximate cost $300.

Meeting dismissed @1015